Designations

Successful applicants will be admitted to one of the following membership categories:

Associate: AIP3: Associate is the first formal rung of the membership ladder. This is for people who are relatively new or have recently qualified in the industry.

Member: MIP3: Member of the Institute is for people who have established themselves in the industry and have a proven track record.

Fellow: FIP3: Fellowship of the Institute is achieved through nomination by Institute peers and approval by the Executive Board.

Student: Student membership of the Institute is open to all full or part time students studying for a qualification at a recognised learning establishment.

Member Recommendation

If your application is supported by a member of the Institute we will waive the £25.00 administration fee.
